AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

Masking policy will be dictated by the recommended Covid guidelines at the time of the trials.

A signed COVID waiver must accompany your entry

NO INDOOR CRATING

The DPCTZ is always trying to make the experience of our events successful for both dog and handler.

During the Covid restrictions, inside crating at Golden Rule was not allowed for safety reasons. We observed that the crating restriction made for a more pleasant experience allowing more room for the dog and handler to warm up and less distractions both during warm-up and in the ring. There are no bottlenecks trying to get past groups of people.

Therefore, we as a club are going to continue the practice of not allowing indoor crating at our Golden Rule trials.

DECLINATION OF ENTRIES. The show committee may decline any entries for cause and may refuse to admit or may remove any dog on account of disease, viciousness, or other cause, and no one shall have any claim or recourse against the show-giving club or any official thereof.

ENTRY FEES will not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by a veterinarian or the judge, or barred from competition by the action of the Trial Committee. If because of riots, civil disturbance, or other acts beyond the control of the management it is impossible to open or to complete the trial, no refund of entry fee(s) will be made.

EXTREME WEATHER CONDITIONS, such as, but not limited to snowstorms, hurricanes, lightening, extreme heat must be considered for the health and safety of the dogs, exhibitors, and spectators. The well-being of dogs, exhibitors and spectators is of paramount importance and, in the event, it is necessary to stop or cancel the trial before completion, no refund of entry fees will be made. To find out about any AKC event cancellations, call the AKC Event Cancellation Hotline at 877-252-3229.

ERRORS ON ENTRY BLANKS. Owners are responsible for errors in making out entry forms, whoever may make such errors, and no entry fee will be refunded in event of such errors or cancellation of entries after the published closing date.

NO REFUND FOR DUPLICATE ENTRIES. We will make every effort to find all duplicate entries, but if a dog has been processed, no refund will be made.

TRANSFERS WILL BE PERMITTED AT THESE TRIALS provided the time limits have not yet been reached and must be done in writing no later than one half hour before the start of the trial.

BITCHES IN SEASON are NOT permitted to compete. After the close of entries, only refund requests for bitches in season can be accepted. Those requests must include a veterinarian's note and be received by the Trial Secretary NO LATER than one half hour prior to the start of the first class for each trial. After the close of entries, a processing fee of $5.00 will be assessed. There will be no refund for injury or illness after entries close.
